THE POLICE UNDER COUNCIL CONTROL

Petersburg Has Not Had a Police Board Since-Last

GRANOLITHIC OFFICER

Four Bodies of Washington Artillerymen Reinterred and Placed in the Proper Section.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., March 23.—The non-election of a new police commission by the Council and Board of Aldermen lcaves the city still without that imcase for several months, the resignation of the former board having been handed last fall. The Police Committee of the Council is now in active supervision of that department.

At the request of several Councilmen, Mr. Thomas B, Machen withdrew his resignation as chairman of the Relief Committee at the special joint meeting of the Council and Board of Aldermen last night. After the adjournment of the meeting, F. G. Stratton's suggestion that the date for the caucus of the two bodies to nominate municipal officers be changed from Wednesday, April th, to Thursday, April 5th, was agreed upon. The jury were unable to agree, standing nine for acquittal and three for conviction in the crose of Merrell Alfeidge, charged with selling liquor Sunday, December 10, 1905, in the Hustings Court to-day, and the case was continued until the next term. Aldridge was a bartender for W. F. Hitchcock at the time of the alleged offense. He is represented by P. H. Drewry, Commonweafth's Altorney H. H. Mann, conducting the City Countiller Follow Formulties of the City Countiller. At the request of several Councilmen,

The Police Committee of the City Coun-cil has granted a four months' leave of absence to Policeman Coleman in order that the Sirfest Department may have his services during the extensive amount of granolithic sidewalk paving soon to be done here by the Southern Paving and Construction Company, of Morfolk, Ciliose Coleman has had great experience in granolithic work.

The bodies of four members of the Washington Artillery, which had been buried by mistake in a wrong section of Blandford Cemetery weft reinterred yestefday afterhoon in the section allotted to that organization. The religious services were attended by a number of members of the Ladies' Memorial Association and A. P. Hill Camp, whose chaplain, Rev. Dr. Pilcher, assisted Rev. J. B. Winn, pastor of Washington Street Methodist Church. The reinterment was brought about by the Ladies' Memorial Association, and the chairman of the Cemetery Committee of the Council according to the wishes of several members of the Washington Artillery who recently visited Petersburg. The soldiers whose hodies were moved were: John McManus, Fourth Company, killed October 27th, 1934; H. C. McClellan, First Company, ded November 23, 1864; Morgan C. Harris, Killed July 1th, 1894; Wilson Stuart, Fourth Campany, killed November 11th, 1894. The body of Bergeant J. A. Covington, of Company G, Thirty-third South Carolina, was removed to the South Carolina section. granolithic work.

The bodies of four members of the

lina, was removed to the South Carolina

News of the death of Colonel William

News of the death of Colonel William E. Peters, of the University of Virginia, was received here with the sincerest sense of personal loss by the many local alumal, who regarded him with attectionate admiration as the highest type of Southern gentleman.

Mr. Emmett A. Poarck, who died yesterday afternoon at the Memorial hospital in Richmond, wak a well known lumber dealer in this city, and a highly steemed citizen. Mr. Poarch was a native of Dinwindle county, and was sixty-three years old. He is survived by his wife, two sons, and two daughters.

Mr. Charles M. Walsh, representing the Peterstring Aerie of Eagles, and Mr. C. G. Pleasants, State district deputy worthy president, will attend a meeting of representatives of the various Aeries of the State in Norfolk next week to for mplans for the meeting of the State Aerie in May.

Miss Mamle Spencer Wyatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wyatt, was married at 9 o'clock last evening to Mr. Georgo E. Dewsbury, a telegraph operator with the Norfolk and Western Railway Company in this city. The ceremony took place at the home of the Rey, F. W. Moore, pastor of the Second Baptist Church.

SEIZE NAVY UNIFORMS.

Five Hundred Dollars' Worth Pawned By Sailors in Service.

Pawned By Sailors in Service.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWPORT NEWS, V.A., March 23.—

Secret Service Agent Cudgens, assisted by Detective Sergeant O'Hara, this afternoon raided pawnshops rune by M. Shimkokitz and F. Dennie and selzed all navy uniforms found in the places, About five hundred dollars' worth of clothing pawned by sailors at various times was selzed and stored at the police station, under search warrants issued by Justice Semmer.

The pawnbrokers will be tried in the local Police Court Monday on the charge of receiving stolen goods. There is a Federal statute providing for the selzure of clothing and equipment issued by the government, but the agent did not proceed under this.

STRIKE ECHOES.

Machinist Under Arrest for Inter-

Machinist Under Arrest for Interfereing With a Worker.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., March 23.—P. M. Winnier, one of the machinists who are out on a strike at the Glamorgan Pipe Works, was arrested this morning on a warrant which charges him with threatening to beat, disfigure, disable and kill Isadore Garshee, a machinist, who is at work at the works.

Later the young man was admitted to bail in the penalty of $100. The security was furnished by friends of the accused, who were on hand shortly after the arrest was made.

The number of men at work to-day was reported to be in excess of yesterday,

Brooke-Ashcroft.

Brooke—Ashcroft,
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RADFORD, VA., March 23.—An interseting marriage occurred at Woodvale, the home of Mrs. James Thornton Ashpraft, near Salem, Monday, when her liece, Miss Jean Richmond St. Albans, became the bride of Lieutenamt Richard Woodruft Brooke, a British army officer, stationed at Ottawn, Canada, Dr. L. L. Abbot, of Alabama, was the celebrant, the Episcopal service being used. RADFORD, VA., March 23.—An intersting marriage occurred at Woodvale, the home of Mrs. James Thornton Asheraft, near Salem. Monday, when her hleed, Miss Jean Richmond St. Albans, became the bride of Lieuteneat Richard Woodruf Brooke, a British army officer, stationed at Ottawa, Canada.

Dr. L. L. Abbot, of Alabama, was the celebrant, the Episcopal service being used.

Wagner's wedding march was played by

The April

Easter Number

THE RAILWAYS OF THE FUTURE The Pan-American Railway,

By CHARLES M. PEPPER.

Fully Illustrated. A brilliant description of this great project and of the wonder-ful country, mountain ranges, plain and jungle, that will be within reach of the traveller of

THE CARIBOU AND HIS KINDRED By ERNEST THOMPSON

A most interesting account of the great reindeer family.

COOPER W. C. BROWNELL An appreciation of the author of

SIR FRANCIS SEYMOUR MADEN By W. B. BOULTON Illustrated with reproductions of

THE WATERS OF With beautiful illustrations

reproduced in colors, from MAXFIELD PARRISH.

F. HOPKINSON SMITH'S best serial, "The Tides of Barnegat."

SHORT STOR'S

Moody, Nelson Lloyd. COLORED GOVER Designed

$3.00 A YEAR - 25c. A NUMBER

Charles Scribner's Sons

Mrs. Laurence Woodruff.
The bride, who is a pretty brunette, wore a beautiful gown of rich Oriental silk over taffeta, trimmed with seed pearls and Spanish lace.
Owing to recent bereavements in the family of the bride, only relatives and intimate friends were present.

FIRE IN CAROLINE. Hunter and Company's Heading

Mill is Burned. Mill is Burned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RUTHER OLEN, VA., March 23.—The heading mill of T. Hunter and Company, near this place, was destroyed by fire last night, causing considerable loss. About a week ago the same company lost a lot of hacked lumber, about a half of a mile from the mill, by fire. This was set on fire by two negro drivers, who kindled a fire to warm. About $3,000 or $1,000 worth of lumber was destroyed.

The loss last night has not yet been ascertained, but is very heavy.

SUFFOLK HUMMING.

Nearly Doubled Its Population Since Nineteen Hundred.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SUFFOLK, VA., March 23.—The municipal count, completed to-day, shows Suffolk census, counting people in the anexed territory to be 7,072. LOf this number 3,562 are white and 3,510 colored. This is an increase of 84 per cent, since 1900.

Ferdinand Rorer.

RECIGINATE KOFF.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROANOKE, VA., March 21.—Ferdinand Rorer, of Bluefield, one of the pioneer citizens of Roanoke, died in Hot Springs, Ark., this morning, aged eighty-two years.
He was a native of Pitisylvania county, and married a daughter of the late Patterson Hannah, who owned Solitude Farm, one of the largest farms in this section, about one thousand acres of which is now closely built up in Roanoke.

WRECKING TUG GOES ASHORE

Asher J. Hudson's Propeller Fouled and She is Blown on

ITALIAN PRIEST TURNS FARMER

Maryland to Expend Fifty Thousand Dollars at Jamestown.

NOTIFONK, VA., March 3.—2he ocean-going tug Asner J. Huddon, belonging to Hudson & Bros., of this city, went hard ashore at Little Island, eight miles below Virginia Beach last night, The tug has been making an effort to their the big Schooner Fannie Palmer, which went ashore there last January. The tug got a hauser in her wheel and in addition got a hauser in her wheel and in account to this a twenty-five mile galo was blowing from the hortheast. But 100 feet of ghallow water now separates the stranded tug from the dry land. The big tug Nathan Hale was sent to the assistance of the Hudson, but so rough was the sea nothing could be accomplished.

mplished. The lifesavers offered to take Captain complished.

The livesavers offered to take Captain Johnson and the romainder of the crew from the Hudson, but all hands preferred to stay by their vessel. It will prove a difficult matter to float the Hudson.

Other tugs with tows leaving Hampton Roads last night put back on account of stress of weather.

Rev. Father Guazard, recently pastor of the Italian Catholics of Norfolk and Portsmouth, whose resignation of the pastorate resulted in the closing of the church, has settled down on a farm near here, which he bought at a cost of $5.00. He will, it is stated put machinery on it in a couple of years and manufacture wine from his grapes.

Maryland will expend $5.000 for its participation in the Jamestown Ter-Centennial. The Finance Committee of the General Assembly now in syssion at Ahnspolis has favorably reported a bill appropriating this amount lowards a Maryland building and exhibit. The Maryland commissioners for the exposition re-

Maryland building and exhibit The Maryland commissioners for the exposition recommended to the Legislature that $1...\text{to appropriated.}\text{The Maryland appropriation for the St. Louis fair was $25,000, and in 1904 the additional sum of $40,000 was given, multing $35,000 in all. The expense of the Jamestown commission will not be near as great as those of the St. Louis Exposition.

INSURANCE ARSON

Opinion Much Divided As to Guilt of the Accused.

Guilt of the Accused.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RALEIGH, N. C., March 23.—The preliminary hearing of the charge brought by the State insurance commissioner against M. T. Norris, a prominent merchant of this city, that he set fire to an unoccupied farmhouse, in order that his wife might get $500 insurance, carried with the North Carolina Insurance Company, continued to-night until about midnight, and yet two of the six contending counsel are to argue the case. J. N.
Holding for the defense, and J. W. Hinsdale for the prosecution.

The taking of testimony began about 2 o'clock, and the State tested about 7 o'clock.

Counsel for Morris contended that the Counsel for Morris contended that the State had not made out a case, and demanded the dismissal of the case. Tonight at midnight the recess was continued until to-morrow morning, when the magistrate, Charles Separks, will hear the concluding argument and decide whether he will blind Norris over for trial at the Superior Court or not.

Fifteen witnesses were examined, the evidence against Norris being entirely ofreumstantial, principally the testimony of the negro boy who drove him through the country the day on which the first followed that night, about twenty minutes; after Norris had the negro to drive him there, as he said, to see if the house was securely closed.

Public opinion is much divided on the question of the probable, guilt of the defendant.

TWO MINIONS OF THE LAW BEFORE THE COURT

(Special to The Times-Depatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., March 22.—Chief of Police Boush was acquitted to-night by Police Boush was acquitted to-night by the Board of Police Commissioners on charges preferred by Justice of the Peace J. J. Elick, who claimed that he had been ejected from the police station while there in his official capacity. Justice Blick appeared before the board, but did not produce evidence enough to sustain his charge.

Ohlenmacher Acquitted.

Officinated Acquirted.

(Special to The Times Dignetch.)
BRISTOL, TENN., March 23.-C. F.
Ohlenmacher, a prominint timber dealer of Bowling Green, Ky., who was brought to Bristol to be tried on a charge of larceny, was acquitted to-day,
It was charged that he pocketed the money on a large consignment of lumber shipped to him.

Deffenbaugh-Batte.

Deffenbaugh—Batte.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
EMPORIA, VA., March 22.—The marriage of Miss Mary Ellen Batte to Mr.
Frank Deffenbaugh was colorated Wednesday, the Zist, at the home of the bride, near Rural Bower, this county, by the Rev. M. Askew.

Mrs. Deffenbaugh is the daughter of Mr. A. Bascom Batte, a prominent citizen of Greensville county, and is a most charming woman. Mr. Deffenbaugh is prominently connected with the Tidewator Railroad Company in its construction department.

Mr. and Mrs. Deffenbaugh will reside partment.

Mr. and Mrs. Deffenbaugh will reside for the present at the home of the bide's parents in upper Greensville.

Body Riddled With Bullets.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HENDERSON, N. C., March 23.—The body of Ed. Crews, colored, aged 18 years was found tied and riddled with bullets was round used and riddled with builds near Creedmore, on the Durham and Northern Rallfoud.

Orews is from Henderson. His parents reside here, but was of bad character. He was charged with the crime of assault on a little child of six years of age, color not stated.

Gotch Downs Olsen, (By Associated Press)

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 23.—Gotch won from Oleen in a wrestling match to-night for the heavy weight champion-ship of the world.

TOPEICA, KAN.—By organizing his congregations into a whistling cheries, and allowing those who could not sing hymns to whistle them. Evangelist F is Oliver has converted 1,001 people in McDherson county during the last three weeks.

NEW YORK.—The much-talked-of tab-leaux viyants for the benefit of the Ladles' Auxillary of the Lying-in Hos-plini were seen in the Waltorf-Astoria, and the great ball-room was crowded. More than a hundred fashionables stood for an hour during the living pictures. Almost $8,000 was cleared.

LONDON.—A record price, $6,000, was paid this afternoon at a local auctionhouse for a prize orchid from the collection of H. T. Pitt.

OMAHA, NEB.—Suit for divorce has been brought by Mrs. Pat Crowe, who alleges that the man who confessed to having received $25,000 for the ransom of Edward Cutality's son, whom he had kidnapped, has contributed nothing to her support for fitteen years. The couple were married in 1888.

CHICAGO, ILL.—A radical change in the states of Zion City industries, by which John Alexander Dowle will retiro from the management of its business states and all of its manufacturing institutions will be incorporated, has been announced.

MILWAUKEE, WIS.—William Mariner, son of Ephraim Mariner, one of the wealthiest men of the Northwest, went to his home bowling with friends and shot himself through the head. The body was found yesterday afternoon.

ROME.—When questioned as to the reports of the probable investment of the Vatican's funds in new directions, a cardinal said that the finances of the Vatican are at such a low ebb that it has no maney to invest abroad.

WILMINGTON, DEL.—Carrerott, J. Ed-ward Addicks' 300-acre farm, was sold by the sheriff for $30,000, subject to back taxes. The name of the purchaser was not revealed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

board, and the ipeal education associa

Damage Verdict.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch,) BRISTOL, VA., March 23.-James W.

Sheffey, of Marion, Va., who sued the

ATTORNEY-GENERAL OF

TELLS BY

normal."

GEORGIA IS DYING

THEIR SLEEP

symptoms of colds in children.

"They toss about, are restless, their breathing is heavy and there are symptoms of

used as the ounce of preven-

CHICAGO.—A mansoleum is to be crected at Wheaten by Judge E. H. Cary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation. It is to cost $100,000.

NEW YORK.—Traveling fifty miles an hour, an express train broke in two at a switch on the West Jersey and Beashore Railroad, near Atlantic City, and a combination ear, in which were ten passengers, took the switch and crayhed into a train of standing flat cars. The car was ripped from its trucks and thrown into the air and then inaded on a flat car. The passengers were flung from their seats, but all escaped with a few cuts and brulses.

PHILADELPHIA — Boin branness of the City Councils voted to reduce the price of gas from $1.00 a thousand feet to cents during the year 1907; to $5 cents from 1908 to 1912; 80 cents from 1915 to January 1, 1923, when the present thirty years' lease held by the United Gas Improvement Company expires.

NEW YORK.—Andrew Carnegie is not to be haled to court by William D. Sloane and Mrs. James A. Burden, Jr., as a result of the dispute which the three have been having over Mr. Carnegie's proposal to sell a mansion site to Gen. Lloyd S. Bryce, Satisfactory adjustment, it was learned, has been made.

YORK, PA.—Chief Streett of the Bal-

STIRRING EDUCATION MORE ARRESTS IN MEETING IN DARVILLE

Dr. McIver, of North Carolina, Young Men Worked Through Schools to Reach Rich Harvest Creates Enthusi-From Merchants.

DANVILLE, VA., March 23 .- Dr. Charles D. McIver, president of the North Carolina State Normal School, spoke to a night, under the auspices of the city school crease in the public school appropriations in Danville, and the salaries of the teachers and superintendents. His comparisons ers and superintendents. His comparisons of the wages paid by the city for street sweepers and cleaners to that paid the educators elletted tremendous applause. Dr. McIver touched on the great progress made in education among the rural sections of the country, and how the cities were dragging along at the same old gait, and not flicreasing the public school fund in proportion to the increase-wealth and population.

On the platform at the municipal hall, where the address was delivered, were seated many of the city officials, members of the City Council and a number of the local lawyers. Dr. McIver was introduced by Prof. Williams Holmes Davis, superintendent of the public schools of the city, and his remarks produced a profound impression.

and brought here at an early hour this morning. They will be held for Deputy United States Marshal Samuel Benditt who will take them in charge for a preliminary trial.

J. M. Holloway is a brother of Cieveland Holloway. They are the sons of Dr.

R. G. Holloway, the oldest physician in this county and one of the most prominent. W. H. Buckner, Jr., is the son of the minds of the sole of the Imperson of the sole of the polloway and the son of the sole of the son of

(By Associated Press.)
AUGUSTA, GA., March 22.—Reports received from Batesburg, S. C., are to the effect that Attorney-General U. X. Gunter, of that State, is not expected to survive the night. All members of his family have been summoned to the bed-side. He has been sectiously ill for several months. He is in his second term, following one term as assistant Attorney-General. North Carolina Society of Richmond held its monthly meeting at the T. P. A. rooms last night. The meeting was presided over by President C. E. Borden. There was not much business to claim the attention of the society, and the most of the time was spent in pleasant chat and the swapping of Tarheel yarns. The next meeting, which will take place on the fourth Friday evening in April, will be a very 'important one. At that time definite plans for the annual meeting is held on or near the 20th of May of each year, the completed. The annual meeting is held on or near the 20th of May of each year, the annuary of the Meckleinburg Declaration of Independence. The society will probably have this year a great meeting, at which at least one prominent speaker from the old North State will be present. It is now expected that Hon, R. B. Glenn, the Governor of North Carolina, will be the speaker at this year's meeting and colebration.

The society will enjoy a smoker with light refreshments on the occasion of the April meeting. President Borden expects a large turnout of the memebrs. "I can tell by my little ones sleep when a cold is coming on said a mother when speaking of the advance night sweats. The next morn-Negro to Be Returned to West Virginia to Stand Trial.

DIABOLICAL CRIME.

Virginia to Stand Trial.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RADEIGH, N. C., March & Governor Glenn this evening honored a requisition from the Governor of West Virginia for R. H. Hays, a negro youth, now in iall at Henderson, and wanted in the sister State for what is termed in the requisition "a felonious and maliclous injury to the body," which is explained in the accompanying affidavit to the Governor to have been one of the most revolting and disbolical assaults in the annale of such crimes. His victim was a young white woman, Miss Addle A. Moses, of Kanawka, W. Va. in a day or two they are all over it. Their rest is again peaceful and the breathing Here's a suggestion for all mothers. Scott's Emulsion always has been almost magical in its action when tion. Nothing seems to over-come child weakness quite so effectively and quickly as Scott's Emulsion.

SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Posts M., New York,

CROSSETT

$400 S H O E $500 MAKES LIFE'S WALK EASY Step into the freedom of Crossett-shoed feet! There's such foot in a vise? Held in a grip that pinches and binds?

Come away from the footgear comfort in leather that walk-

LEWIS A. CROSSETT, Inc. NORTH ABINGTON, MASS.

vived the rumors of the purchase of the Northeastern Railroad by the Southern to gain an entrance into New Orleans, but President Spencer and President C. C. Harvey, of Northeastorn, both deny the reported deal Mr. Harvey to-day gare out the following statement:

"I positively deny the sale of the Northeastern and Alabams and Vicksburg Railroads, or that the sale is even under consideration."

The Southern and the 'Frisco are the owners of the new five million dollar terminals being constructed here to include a union depot on Canal Street, and the Southern will come in over the Northeastern tracks from Meridian.

Mayor J. F. Fitzgerald Will Visit Richmond and his family left for Virginia on Thursday, and it is thought he will visit Richmond and the Hot Springs.

Richmond and the Hot Springs.

Mayor McCarthy has not been informed of the time of his arrival and has, therefore made no provision for any formal reception.

Mayor Fitzgerald was not registered at any of the hotels here last night, and it is thought that he has gone direct to the Hot Springs and will visit Richmond on his way back to Boston.

TRIED TO WRECK TRAIN.

Saw-Mill Hand Arrested By Seaboard Air Line Agent.

AUGUSTA, GA., March 23.—Jesse Evans, a Crotan half-breed saw mill hand, working in a mill at Crosset Station, ten miles north of Camden, was arrested to-day north of Camden, was arrested to-day by Chief Special Agent George Fitzwater, of the Seaboard Air Line, for putting an iron bar across the Seaboard tracks near Crosset yeaterday. Mr. Fitzwater says he has enough evidence against Evans to convict him of deliberately planning to wreck a passenger train. The prisoner is in jail at Camden. The arrest is the result of an investigation of several flagrant attempts to wreck trains in that section.

FORMER PROFESSOR IN FLORIDA PRISON

DENY REPORT.

Southern Railway Has Not Purcliased Northeastern Railroad.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW ORLEANS, March 28.—The pressence of President Spencer, of the Southern Railway, and a number of other prominent Southern Railway officials, response of Stephens, formerly a professor in Lafayette College, at Easton, Pa., to a term of two years in the penitentiary for countriciting. The term will date from the incarceration of Stephens, eight months ago. Stephens wept when taken away by the officers.

CARELESS CONDUCTOR GIVEN TEN YEARS

Was Responsible for Collision Which Resulted in Death of

NEW YORK, March 28 .- A sentence of en years' imprisonment was to-day imposed on Albert Oreman, a street car conbe responsible for a collision which re sulted in the death of Bernard M. Mc was convicted of manslaughter. At the time of the collision Oreman was running and chauffeurs." said Judge Foster to Oreman, "It is my duty to impose heavy sentence on you as an object lesson against the carelessness of such men as you."

Newspaper Tributes.

On the demise of the late Henry Clay Payne, a concern in New York gathered from the papers published throughout the United States 4,685 newspaper stories of the life and ca-

These items were carefully mounted on Irish linen leaves and bound in 6 volumes, 400 pages to the book. A cover of genuine seal was appropriately lettered in gold and the entire material, representing the work of many people for several months, has just been delivered

Mr. Burrelle, who makes specialty of this unique method of preserving family history, also compiled four volumes containing the letters, telegrams and cards of condolence received by the family, all constituting a family heiricom that will be handed down to future genera-

This work is one of the sev-This work is one of the press cral developments of the press clipping industry and Mr. Bur-relle has made a special study of the work he created several

There are Hair Brushes and Hair Brushes, but the kind you ike we have—the very best kind.

The bristles will positively not Looking for good Brush? Come in any of our stores and

> T. A. Miller, (Incorporated.)
> FOUR DRUG STORES.

Roses,

Largest Stock. Hammond,

Florist,

HAIR BALSAM

BRIEF ITEMS FROM EVERYWHERE

NEW YORK.—Frot. R. Ogden Dorenus.
One of the most famous toxicologists in the world, former vice-president and projects of the City of New York, died, after a brief liness, at his home in the Strathmore, Fifty-second street and Broadway, aged of filty-two years.

NEW YORK.—Fron. R. Ogden Dorenus.

RIVERTON, N. J.—After suffering five days. A twood Grant died of hiccoughs at his nome on Broad street. Six weeks and brief liness, at his home in the Strathmore, Fifty-second street and Broadway, aged of filty-two years.

CHICAGO.—A mausoleum is to be crect-

MAIL FRAUD CASES

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., March 23.—
W. H. Buckner, Jr., and Cleveland H.
Holloway, of Caroline county, who were connected with J. M. Holloway, who was arrested this week at Williamsburg, charged with using the mails for fraudulent purposes, were arrested last night
by Postoffice Inspector George F. Smith, and brough here at an early hour this morning. They will be held for Deputy United States Marshal Samuel Bendit, who will take them in charge for a pre-ing I start with Scott's Emulsion. The chances are that MOUNT HOLLY, N. J.-A sensation was afruing here by the announcement that tickets issued to the legal witnesses for the double execution on Saturday morning of Rofus Johnson and George Small had been sold for high prices by persons who felt more like getting the money than watching the hanging.

NEW YORK.—Senator Chauncey M. Depew was reported to be much better than he has been since he entered upon his present retirement, and it was positively ann inced by his family that he would return to his home in this city by the middle of next week. It is expected that within three or four days after that he will resume his duties in the Senate.

reer of the deceased.

to Mrs. Payne at Milwaukee.

tions.

brushes.

The quality lies in superior bristles and high-class workman-come out-they wear right down to the back.

ask us about Brushes.

Cut Flowers, and Designs.

109 East Broad Street.